

MEASURE OF A MAN

Contract

I, _____, on behalf of my church, _____
understand and agree that:

- We have to no legal rights to the film Measure of a Man
- Any copying or distribution of the provided DVD, its images or soundtrack on any media (including but not limited to DVD, VHS, CD, or the internet) is strictly prohibited & violators will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law
- We are permitted to show this film one time, on the previously agreed upon date and time, no other public screenings are allowed without the express, written consent of Downpour Productions
- The film must be shown as it was intended, not in part or segmented but as a whole; if Downpour Productions feels that the film is being misconstrued or used for purposes it does not support, it reserves the right to take legal action against the offenders

This contract is for the purpose of protecting Downpour Productions, Life Without Limbs, and Nick Vujicic.

If any discrepancies or disagreements arise regarding the interpretation of this contract, Downpour Productions (in association with Life Without Limbs) is the final authority on the meaning of the contract.

Signed: _____ Date: _____
Church Representative